Exactly my thoughts , FSPM needs to start with Press on all events in order to show would be investors that the company is viable and moving forward. Those recent halts especially with one striking so close to home has taken a toll and shaken confidence

FSPM as far as PRzz go are very lacking in Fluff, Most do not really even detail enough to grasp what the Company has done or is doing, I suspect some Teaching on PR writing would serve FSPM very well.

The PRz are very short and to the Point, I personally would like to see more details about what the company is doing and progress reports . I mean Geez they didnt even PR the Tacoma Show of the 5th and 6th. I think that was a big missed opportunity for would be investors near the Tacoma area to go and check them out, But hell no one really knew about it LoL

FUSION MANAGEMENT: Put out a pr already. Us shareholders have no idea what you are doing. New shareholders wont discover your company. So aggravating!!!!!!!!!!!!!!!!!!!!!!

Go

the lack of PR is the reason why you know FSPM isn't bs.

if the company was trying to pump and dump its shares on investors, it would be coming out with daily/weekly non-substantial, bs PRs. FSPM doesn't do that. it only reports real news.

patience is the key here. i'm long. this company will be $10+

Which stock are you referring to? FSPM rarely even puts out PR's for significant news, let alone "fluff" PR's.
